Hokies unite for championship season

The Virginia Tech football team entered the 2004 season looking to recapture the blue collar work ethic that had gotten it to the top of college football. The end to the 2003 season had left a bitter taste in the mouths of the 19 seniors set to play their final season in Chicago maroon and burnt orange. During spring conditioning, a wave of change came over the team spurred by the seniors. The goal was to rekindle the fire of the team by bringing it together.

The mission was simple: to unite the Hokies into an unselfish and disciplined unit, and guide the team through its inaugural season in the Atlantic Coast Conference. The proud Hokies had hopes of a league title and a trip to a Bowl Championship Series postseason game.

The task would be a tough one, as the Hokies were picked to finish sixth in the ACC preseason media poll and were missing from the preseason Associated Press poll for the first time in six years. To add to the challenge, the Hokies would face preseason No. 1 Southern California in the Black Coaches Association Classic to open the college football season.

The senior class and head coach Frank Beamer's staff felt this team still had something special. Led by quarterback Bryan Randall on offense and lineman Jim Davis on defense, the team had all the makings of a classic Hokie squad. And if the leadership could overcome the losses of running back Kevin Jones, defensive back DeAngelo Hall and center Jake Grove to the professional ranks, their chances for success appeared good.

The first game would be a rough one, as the Hokies entered their opener at FedEx Field in Landover, Md., home of the NFL's Washington Redskins, as underdogs to the top-ranked Trojans. USC withstood a spirited effort from the Hokies to notch a hard-fought 24-13 win over Tech. The game was played in front of more than 91,000 fans, the largest match-up with the Broncos of Western Michigan. Tech would dominate the Broncos in all phases of the game on the way to a 63-0 victory.

The Hokies pounced early in this game and were never challenged. Promising freshman Eddie Royal showed a glimpse of things to come with an 11-yard touchdown run in the first quarter to open the scoring. Royal took a reverse pitch from Randall and streaked around the right side for his first collegiate score. He would add a touchdown reception later in the game.

The Broncos had a couple of scoring opportunities in the first half but could not convert. Trailing the Hokies 21-0, WMU drove 79 yards to the Tech 5-yard line before being forced to attempt a field goal. Tech's Jim Davis broke through and deflected the attempt.

Defensive lineman Jason Lallis also made the highlight reel in a bizarre play when Western Michigan quarterback Ryan Cubit threw a pass that was deflected and landed in the arms of offensive guard Mark Ottney. Ottney tried to advance up the field, but Lallis stripped him of the ball and strolled into the end zone from 28 yards away.

Tech and the Hokie faithful had waited over 50 years for their next game: their first as a member of the ACC against the Blue Devils of Duke. Despite the threat of rain and cold weather in the wake of Hurricane Ivan, Virginia Tech's tilt with Duke on Sept. 18 had the feel of one big party. The Hokies celebrated with 65,115 of their closest friends and some fireworks in a 41-17 victory over the Blue Devils.

The biggest crowd-pleaser of the day came in the second quarter with the Hokies holding a 10-7 lead and five minutes remaining in the half. Tech's defense had just held Duke to crowd to ever watch the Hokies. The same USC team that had to rally to beat the scrappy Hokies defeated Oklahoma in the BCS National Championship.

Tech stayed in the game and actually led for a large portion of it until USC scored late in the third quarter to take a lead it would never relinquish. Randall provided most of the offense for the Hokies in this one. He completed 14-of-24 passes for 153 yards, with one touchdown, and rushed for 82 yards.

After a week off to refocus, the Hokies were eager to return to the confines of familiar Lane Stadium/Worsham Field for a its third straight three-and-out series and took over at the Blue Devil 34 after Duke's punt. On first down, Randall pitched the ball to receiver Richard Johnson on a reverse. Johnson, a former high school quarterback, looked downfield and lofted a perfect pass to freshman Josh Hyman in the end zone. Hyman got behind his man and made a leaping catch for the score.

With the momentum recaptured after a tough loss to the Trojans, the Hokies were riding a two-game winning streak entering a match-up with the Wolfpack of North Carolina State and its top-ranked defensive unit.

A series of special team letdowns and Brandon Pace's missed 43-yard field goal as time expired, left Tech behind 17-16 at the end of the game. The Hokies began their last drive at their own 5-yard line with no timeouts and 2:44 left on the clock. Tech was able to move 69 yards in 10 plays, converting a crucial 4th-and-3 along the way. With three seconds left on the clock, the field goal unit took the field. The snap and hold were fine, but the kick floated just inches to the right of the post. The tough loss gave the Hokie faithful a glimpse of how difficult the new ACC schedule would be every week.

N.C. State came into the game as the nation's top-rated defense and showed it against the Hokies. The Wolfpack registered 10 sacks, taking 78 yards away from Tech in the process.

After the difficult loss to the Wolfpack, Beamer rallied the troops for the Black Diamond Trophy game against neighboring rival West Virginia. The 28-7 loss at Morgantown in 2003 festered with the Hokies all year and the seniors had marked the game as a must-win in order for the season to be successful. It would be one of the most physical games the Hokies would play all season, but in the end, the No. 6-ranked Mountaineers would fall, as would their national title hopes, 19-13.

The tight contest was not decided until WVU's final drive. Starting at their own 11 with 41 seconds on the clock, the Mountaineers completed a 33-yard pass to their 44 and got 15 yards added on thanks to a penalty. But just moments later, WVU quarterback Rasheed Marshall was intercepted by Tech's Vincent Fuller to end the threat and the game.

Defense was the name of the game throughout as the two rivals squared off. The Hokies held the Mountaineers to three-and-out on each of their first four possessions. On the fourth of those, the Mountaineers opted to go for it on fourth-and-one from the Tech 46. WVU tailback Kay-Jay Harris took the hand off and was drilled by Fuller. Fuller's hit jarred the ball loose and linebacker Mikal Baaqee recovered.

Tech's lone touchdown came when Davis blocked a field goal and Fuller picked up the loose ball and sprinted 74 yards for the score. Tailback Mike Imoh was the sparkplug for Tech, getting the first start of his career and finishing with 115 yards rushing on 30 carries.

The junior running back was just hitting his stride, and carried the momentum of his first career 100-yard rushing game into the Hokies' match-up with the Demon Deacons of Wake Forest. His 7-yard touchdown run with 2:10 left in that game, followed by the Hokies' goal line stand in the final seconds, enabled Virginia Tech to escape with a 17-10 victory over Wake Forest at Groves Stadium in Winston-Salem, N.C.

The Hokies led the game 10-7 going into the fourth quarter, but Wake Forest kicker Ryan Plackemeier tied the game with a 20-yard field goal with 6:15 left. After that, Tech's offense put together its best drive of the second half, led by Randall. The senior hit tight end Jeff King for a 24-yard gain to the Tech 48. He then ran the ball on three of the Hokies' next five plays, getting Tech to the Wake Forest 11 on a 21-yard run off a quarterback draw. Imoh ran for four yards on the next play, and then scored to end the drive. His 7-yard touchdown run pushed him to the 100-yard mark for the second consecutive week.

The Hokies were beginning to find chemistry on offense, and stalwart Randall had a big game, throwing for four touchdowns, in a 62-0 win over the Florida A&M Rattlers on Oct. 16. Nine different Hokies scored as a sold-out Homecoming crowd of 65,115 braved the 38-mph winds to watch the Hokies improve to 5-2 on the year.

Randall completed 9-of-14 for 115 yards before being lifted late in the second quarter with the Hokies up 41-0. He completed touchdown passes to David Clowney, King, Hyman and Jesse Allen before taking a seat so that backup quarterback Sean Glennon could get some work.

Next, Tech traveled to Atlanta, Ga., to face the Yellow Jackets of Georgia Tech in an ESPN Thursday night game that would not be a pleaser for the home crowd. The Hokies scored 22 points in the final six minutes of the game to rally from a 14-0 deficit and stun the other Tech, 34-20.

The 25 points in the fourth quarter marked the most fourth-quarter points ever scored by a Beamer team, surpassing the 23 points the Hokies scored against Miami in the fourth quarter in 1999. The comeback was Tech's first fourth-quarter comeback since 2000 when then-reserve quarterback Dave Meyer rallied the Hokies from a 34-27 deficit to a 37-34 win over Pittsburgh.

Georgia Tech took a 20-12 lead with 5:28 left in the game thanks to a 34-yard field goal by kicker Travis Bell. That lead was short-lived as the Hokies' offense finally got the spark it needed on its ensuing possession. On first-and-10 from the 20, Randall tossed a pass to Royal and the rookie cut across the field, sprinting 80 yards for the touchdown, marking the season's longest play by the offense. The Hokies tied the game when Randall found Johnson all alone in the end zone for a two-point conversion.

Tech's defense forced Georgia Tech to go three-and-out on the Yellow Jackets' next possession, and the Hokies wasted little time in scoring again. On the third play of the drive, Randall found a Georgia Tech blitz and read a wide-open Josh Morgan, who went 51 yards for what turned out to be the game-winning touchdown.

Virginia Tech was now in serious contention for an ACC title, but would have to finish the season with four tough opponents, three nationally ranked foes and unranked North Carolina, which was fresh off an upset of then-No. 4 Miami.

Big games, however, were bringing out the best in the Hokies. At UNC, it was Davis who made the play of the game when the Hokies needed it most. His critical quarterback sack late in the fourth quarter forced North Carolina to attempt a 54-yard field goal that fell short, allowing the Hokies to escape with a 27-24 victory at Kenan Stadium in Chapel Hill, N.C.

The victory, the Hokies fifth straight since the loss to N.C. State, made Tech bowl eligible with a 7-2 overall record on the season. The Hokies also moved to 4-1 in the ACC and were tied for first place in the league standings.

Tech's stats against the Tar Heels were highlighted by Imoh's record-breaking performance. The 5-7, 196-pounder from Fairfax, Va., finished with a school record 243 yards on 32 carries and scored two touchdowns. He also caught one pass for three yards and returned three kickoffs for 48 yards, accounting for 287 all-purpose yards.

With the offense and defense clicking on all cylinders as the Hokies got a week off to prepare for the final three games of the season against conference foes, Maryland, Virginia and Miami.

The Terrapins of Maryland took the brunt of a rested and hungry Tech defensive unit that forced four first-half turnovers, allowing the Hokies to score early and often. Tech rolled to a 55-6 victory in another Thursday night ESPN game, this time at Lane Stadium/Worsham Field.

Tech's defense contributed four interceptions and a fumble recovery while holding the Terps to 197 yards of total offense. Meanwhile, Randall threw for two touchdowns and ran for another.

The win set up a game with the Virginia Cavaliers for more than just in-state bragging rights. It was also for a guaranteed share of the ACC Championship. The Cavaliers had been highly touted all year, and would be the Hokies' biggest challenge of the season since facing No. 1-ranked Trojans.

It was the Hokies who kept their ACC hopes alive with a 24-10 victory over the No. 14-ranked Cavaliers in Blacksburg. Tech's defense dominated for most of the game and the offense finally came around in the second half as the Hokies improved to 9-2 and 6-1 in front of 65,115 fans.

As expected, the game was tight, with the teams playing to a scoreless tie in the first half. Virginia finally broke through with a 32-yard touchdown pass in the third quarter. After a field goal by Pace, Tech held Virginia to three-and-out on its next possession. The Hokies took advantage of a 27-yard punt and started at the Virginia 45-yard line. On the first play, Randall found Hyman streaking down the left sideline and hit him in stride for the 45-yard touchdown, giving the Hokies a 10-7 lead.

Jim Davis (95) combined with Darryl Tapp to knock down Miami pass attempts on three consecutive plays in the waning moments of Tech's 16-10 victory.

Tied at 10, the Hokies went ahead for good in the fourth quarter when Randall hooked up with Hyman again, this time for a 32-yard score. Tailback Cedric Humes sealed the victory with a 37-yard TD run with 5:08 remaining.

Randall completed 16-of-22 passes and finished with an even 200 yards passing. He surpassed Don Strock as Tech's all-time leading passer with a 12-yard completion to King in the fourth quarter.

Riding a seven-game winning streak, the Hokies traveled to Miami to face a talented and speedy Hurricane squad that had its sites set on a share of the conference crown and a trip to a BCS Bowl. Despite the fact that UM had suffered two unexpected losses, the Hokies never dismissed the challenge they were facing.

Miami remembered a 31-7 loss at the hands of the Hokies last season. This 'Canes team was looking for revenge, but they were left empty handed. Thanks to a dominating defensive performance and a couple of touchdown passes by Randall, Virginia Tech completed its first trip through the ACC by knocking off No. 9 Miami 16-10 to claim the conference championship and earn the league's automatic berth into the Bowl Championship Series. The win gave the Hokies a 10-2 overall record and 7-1 conference mark.

Tech took the lead for good in the fourth quarter and then used its defense to slam the door on the Hurricanes. Early in the fourth, Royal returned a punt 18 yards to the Miami 39-yard line, giving the Hokies terrific field position. On the next play, Randall hit Royal slanting across the middle and the shifty freshman found his way to the end zone for the deciding touchdown.

Miami's last hopes were dashed by the signature series for Tech's defense. The Hurricanes took over at their own 12-yard line for what would be their final drive with 1:14 to go. Miami quarterback Brock Berlin completed an 8-yard pass to Sinorice Moss on first down, but Tech's Davis batted down Berlin's next two passes and Tapp swatted away the final attempt to seal the Hurricanes' fate. Randall took a knee twice as the Hokies ran out the final 57 seconds.

Tech got a huge game from Humes. The redshirt junior took over for Imoh early in the game and rushed for 110 yards on 27 carries to help give the Hokies a 297-190 edge in total offense.

With the Miami win, Tech secured the ACC title and the right to play No. 3 Auburn in the Nokia Sugar Bowl. While the outcome wasn't what Tech fans had hoped for, the Hokies showed they belonged, dropping a tight 16-13 contest. Randall threw two long scoring passes to Morgan and the Hokies held a high-powered Auburn offense to three field goals and a score.
