The Tradition

Consistency. It is the mark of true excellence in any endeavor. However, in today’s intercollegiate athletics, competition has become so balanced and so competitive that it is virtually impossible to maintain a high level of consistency.

Yet the Atlantic Coast Conference has defied the odds. Now in its 54th year of competition, the ACC has long enjoyed the reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation. And that is not mere conjecture, the numbers support it.

Since the league’s inception in 1953, ACC schools have captured 100 national championships, including 52 in women’s competition and 48 in men’s. In addition, NCAA individual titles have gone to ACC student-athletes 130 times in men’s competition and 71 times in women’s action.

The conference had an immediate impact on the national college football scene in the fall of 1953 when the University of Maryland captured the first of what would eventually be five national football titles for the ACC. Clemson laid claim to the league’s second national title in 1954. The conference did not conduct championships in cross country, wrestling or tennis during the first year.

ACC schools have had 2,093 players selected in the annual professional football draft, including 204 first-round selections.

If success is best measured in terms of wins and losses, then the ACC over the years has proved itself to be among the elite in Division I-A football. The ACC is the nation’s winningest bowl conference as the 12 current league teams are a combined 139-119-5 (.538) in post-season play.

Following its 5-3 bowl mark in 2005, the ACC is the only conference to post a .500-or-better record in post-season play in each of the past five seasons. Since 2001, the ACC is 21-12 in post-season play and has the best bowl winning percentage (.636) among all BCS conferences.

In 2002, the ACC set an NCAA record when seven of its nine teams (78 percent) received bowl bids.

Georgia Tech and Boston College are tied for the second-best bowl game winning percentages in Division I-A history. The Yellow Jackets are 22-12 (.636) while the Eagles are 11-6. Florida State 20-13-2 (.600) is eighth.

For the first time in ACC history, league schools surpassed the 3.8 million mark in total attendance in 2005. Over 73 home games, ACC teams drew 3,835,260 fans, breaking the existing record of 3,693,032 set in 2004.

2005-06 in Review

The 2005-06 academic season concluded with the league pocketing an all-time high six national team titles and 15 individual NCAA crowns. In all, the ACC has won 57 national team titles over the last 16 years. The ACC has won two or more NCAA titles in 24 of the past 26 years.

As this document went to press, four ACC baseball teams were participating in the College World Series.

The Championships

The conference will conduct championship competition in 25 sports during the 2006-07 academic year — 12 for men and 13 for women.

The first ACC championship was held in swimming on Feb. 25, 1954. The conference did not conduct championships in cross country, wrestling or tennis during the first year.

The 12 sports for men include football, cross country, soccer, basketball, swimming and outdoor track, wrestling, baseball, tennis, golf and lacrosse. Fencing, which was started in 1971, was discontinued in 1981.

Women’s sports were initiated in 1977 with the first championship meet being held in tennis at Wake Forest University. Championships for women are currently conducted in cross country, volleyball, field hockey, soccer, basketball, swimming, indoor and outdoor track, tennis, golf, lacrosse, softball and rowing.

A History

The Atlantic Coast Conference was founded on May 8, 1953, at the Sedgefield Inn near Greensboro, N.C., with seven

Jim Davis (95) knocks down a pass in Tech’s 16-10 victory at Miami in 2004, helping Tech clinch its first ACC title.
The 2006 ACC champion will participate in the Orange Bowl, unless ranked Nos. 1 or 2 in the final BCS poll. Those teams will play in the BCS championship game on Jan. 8.

Double Hosting
Beginning with the 2006 season, the National Championship Game will be rotating among the four BCS bowls every year. There will be a Rose Bowl, Orange Bowl, Sugar Bowl and Fiesta Bowl and once in a four year period, one of the sites will serve as host for the National Championship Game a week after its traditional bowl.
The host committee of the Fiesta Bowl will be the first to implement the new format. In addition to the Insight Bowl on Dec. 28 and the Fiesta Bowl on Jan. 1, the group will host the Tostitos BCS National Championship Game on Jan. 8.
